English style rifle for hunting in Africa

In a pure English style, this rifle is made for hunting in Africa. The rifled barrel of caliber .72, like the Express Safari will give you complete satisfaction and very good results in hunting big African game.

The rifle is equipped with a GHOST diopter: the small circular eyecup allows an instinctive aiming of the target during a rapid support of the rifle. The open ring provides a clear view of the target even in low light. The barrel is bronzed and provided with a handlebar with interchangeable ramp anti-reflection treatment.
