Ammunition designed for big game

The Nosler Partition, integrated into the Sologne Klassic in 7x64 caliber, has been a legendary warhead since 1948. Its double core in special lead, separated by a copper partition, allows reliable expansion of the front core and deep penetration thanks to the rear core which retains more than two thirds of the initial weight.

Its progressive copper jacket controls deformation at all speeds, while the Crimp Locks guarantee the necessary resistance to the pressures of powerful calibers. Ideal for hunting deer, heavy boar and moose, it offers a perfect balance between precision and terminal efficiency.
