The Beretta A300 Outlander caliber 12/76 is a semi-automatic gas-operated shotgun, the latest successor to the famous 300 series. Designed to be simple, reliable and efficient, it is aimed at demanding hunters looking for a versatile weapon.

A high-performance gas mechanism

The A300 Outlander features a proven gas system with a self-cleaning piston that significantly reduces fouling. This technology ensures a smooth cycle, improved weapon longevity, and exemplary reliability, even under intensive use.

Proven Mobilchoke Cannons

This shotgun comes with 3 interchangeable Mobilchoke chokes , suitable for all types of hunting and shooting. Its proven steel shot barrels guarantee regular and accurate shots, whether for waterfowl hunting, small game or clay pigeon shooting.

Comfort and ergonomics

The oiled, sanded wood stock offers natural balance and a traditional aesthetic. Its fluid design promotes instinctive shouldering and rapid aiming. Adjustment shims allow the stock's slope to be adjusted to the shooter's body shape.

A versatile and accessible rifle

With its 76mm Magnum chamber and 2+1 shot capacity, the A300 Outlander is ideal for all practices: hunting in the plains, marshes, post or even sport shooting. Reliable, robust and offered at an attractive price, it perpetuates the Beretta heritage with modernity.

Choose the Beretta A300 Outlander with a 71 or 76 cm barrel and benefit from a high-performance, durable gas-operated semi-automatic with a 5-year warranty.
