The Beretta Bellmonte II 12/76 caliber is an inertial semi-automatic shotgun that combines reliability, elegance, and shooting comfort. Designed for demanding hunters, it stands out for its meticulous finish and proven field performance.

A proven inertial mechanism

Like the entire Bellmonte range, the Bellmonte II relies on a robust inertial system that effectively reduces recoil and ensures optimal fluidity. Its rotating bolt secures the slide and barrel, guaranteeing increased safety and accuracy.

Elegance and gunsmithing tradition

The matte and glossy black anodized Ergal case is enriched with gold engraving , adding a touch of elegance. The finely checkered grade 2 walnut stock and fore-end ensure comfort, strength and refined aesthetics.

Comfort and ergonomics

The MicroCell Soft Plus recoil pad absorbs recoil and allows for a smooth, comfortable aim. The fiber optic front sight ensures rapid target acquisition, even in low light. Its sleek design promotes instinctive and precise shouldering.

Versatility and performance

Supplied with 5 internal 7 cm Benelli Crio chokes , the Bellmonte II is suitable for all types of hunting and game. Proven for steel shot, it accepts all 12/70 and 12/76 Magnum ammunition. Easy to disassemble, it is practical to maintain, even after intensive use.

Choose the Beretta Bellmonte II 12/76 and discover a high-performance, elegant and affordable inertial semi-automatic rifle, ideal for all your hunting trips.
