The Beretta Bellmonte I Camo Max 5 Caliber 12/76 is a semi-automatic shotgun specially designed for waterfowl hunters. Its Max 5 camouflage finish ensures perfect stealth in wetlands, while its inertial mechanism reduces the feeling of recoil for comfortable and efficient shooting.

A proven inertial mechanism

The Bellmonte I relies on a reliable inertial system, with a rotating bolt that secures the breech and barrel. This robust mechanism reduces recoil and guarantees consistent performance with all 12-gauge cartridges, from 70 mm to 76 mm Magnum.

A camo rifle for waterfowl

The Camo Max 5 finish covers the stock, fore-end, and receiver, ensuring excellent integration into the natural environments of marshes and wetlands. The fiber optic front sight allows for rapid target acquisition, even in low-light conditions.

Ergonomics and comfort

The stock and fore-end are made of checkered technopolymer for a firm grip, even with wet hands. The MicroCell Soft Plus buttplate absorbs recoil, providing a smooth and comfortable shot. Adjustment shims allow the butt slope to be adjusted to the hunter's body shape.

Versatility and performance

With its 3 interchangeable Mobilchokes (//), the Bellmonte I Camo Max 5 adapts to all hunting situations. Tested for steel shot, it is ready for intensive use on waterfowl and migratory birds.

Choose the Beretta Bellmonte I Camo Max 5 and enjoy a reliable, ergonomic semi-automatic shotgun perfectly suited to waterfowl hunting.
