A simple, functional and protective case

The NUPROL ESSENTIALS range meets the needs of shooters and airsoft players looking for an efficient, no-frills transport solution. This 138cm rigid case is ideal for securing a long-range rifle , a DMR or sniper airsoft replica , or a bolt-action rifle , while remaining easy to handle and discreet.

High-density ABS construction

The ABS used in this series provides increased rigidity without adding weight during transport. Resistant to everyday bumps and scratches, the outer shell protects the contents during travel, even in harsh conditions.

inner convoluted foam

The case's core is lined with egg-shaped foam that conforms to the contours of your firearm while absorbing vibrations and movement. An ideal solution for short or frequent trips : shooting range, field, or client meetings.

Secure and discreet closure

The clip-on zipper system allows for quick opening while securely holding the two parts of the case together. Compact and free of unnecessary features, it fits easily in a vehicle or closet.
