The Mossberg Patriot 30-06 Synthetic Rifle Scope with 3-12x56 Scope is a ready-to-use package designed for big game hunters. Combining ruggedness, precision, and comfort, it provides immediate access to a high-performance rifle with a bright optic suitable for all conditions.

A reliable and robust rifle

The Mossberg Patriot synthetic offers excellent value for money for discerning hunters. Its M14x100 threaded barrel (or 5/8x24 on .300 Win Mag) allows for the adaptation of a suppressor. Its lightweight and durable black synthetic stock guarantees optimal durability against bad weather and intensive use.

A bright optic for all situations

The 3-12x56 scope is ideal for stalking and hunting in low light. Equipped with an illuminated reticle, it ensures rapid target acquisition and excellent visibility, even at dawn or dusk. Its 56 mm diameter captures maximum light, while its medium 21 mm Weaver mount guarantees reliable stability.

A ready-to-hunt pack

This Mossberg Patriot Pack combines everything a hunter needs: a high-performance rifle, a versatile threaded barrel, and a bright optic perfectly suited to big game hunting. Supplied with a mount, it's a turnkey solution for immediate use.

Choose the Mossberg Patriot Synthetic 30-06 Pack with 3-12x56 Scope and go hunting with complete, reliable equipment perfectly suited to real-world field conditions.
