Pietta replica of the famous Colt Rebnord Sheriff compact black powder revolver.

Short version of the famous Colt revolver used by the Confederates (Reb, s) and allowing to draw faster than the standard version.

- Marbled steel carcass
- Octagonal barrel 12.7 cm

Black powder revolver for target shooting or cowboy action shooting. The Colt 1851 Navy Rebnord Sheriff was a short version of the famous Colt revolver used by the Confederates (Rebs) and allowing faster drawing than the standard version.

The Colt Rebnord revolver was produced by the Confederate States of America (Rebels, hence the name Reb) during the Civil War, and which was appreciated by the pioneers of the conquest of the west in the 19th century.

This type of black powder revolver, 6 shots in the language of westerns, is an over-the-counter weapon ideal for learning sports shooting.

Reloading requires bulk black powder, wads, lead bullets and primers.
