A pump-action shotgun that respects the codes of tradition

With its oil-finished walnut stock , the Yildiz S71 wood shotgun offers classic charm while incorporating the advantages of a modern pump-action system. Ideal for hunters seeking a reliable, elegant, and functional shotgun.

71 cm rifled barrel, steel shot proofed

The 71cm rifled barrel , made of 4140 steel , is designed to withstand intense firing and accepts steel shot . It allows for accurate shooting at medium range, ideal for waterfowl or migratory birds.

Supplied with 5 chokes for a customized shot pattern.

Suitable for all shooting conditions, the shotgun comes with 5 interchangeable chokes : Full, 3/4, 1/2, 1/4 and Cylinder. This allows you to adjust the shot pattern according to the game or habitat.

Selected wood, improved shooting comfort

The oiled and sanded wood used for the stock and forend ensures a natural and comfortable grip . The checkering on the grip and forend improves traction. A rubber butt plate reduces recoil for greater shooting comfort.

Robustness and reliability of the Yildiz mechanism

The 7075 alloy receiver ensures a lightweight yet durable structure. The pump action functions flawlessly, even with Magnum cartridges. Like all Yildiz models, the S71 wood is target-tested at the factory.
