Simple, functional and efficient... it's typically the kind of case you slip into the trunk without thinking about it, but which makes all the difference in preserving your equipment season after season.

FAQ

Is this case compatible with a rifle equipped with a scope?

With its dimensions of 132 x 28 cm, it is suitable for the majority of hunting rifles equipped with standard optics, subject to dimensional compatibility.

Is transporting a rifle in this case compliant with regulations?

A Category C firearm must be transported in a manner that prevents immediate use. The use of a closed case, separate from the ammunition, meets the general transport requirements stipulated by French regulations.

Is the shoulder strap removable?

Yes, the shoulder strap on the back is detachable, allowing you to adapt the way you wear it according to your preferences or the situation.
