For your short outings!

This ideal backpack to accompany your day trips is extremely solid and well thought out and allows you to conveniently carry all your accessories and store them in a quickly accessible way.

Two main compartments with enough space to carry extra clothes, your camera gear, food and other accessories.

Reinforced structure and support belt to relieve your shoulders. The back of the bag is lined: a metal structure keeps the ergonomic back veil a few centimeters from the bag, ensuring air circulation and the evacuation of perspiration.

A pocket on the back contains a strap finished with a stock holster allowing you to attach a rifle to the back of the bag.

Comes with a camel back pocket and waterproof canvas for protection against rain and snow. This overbag is accessible at any time in a pocket at the bottom and deploys in a few seconds.
