100% vegetable, without chemical treatment or refining!

Armenet wipes are ready to use to clean, lubricate, maintain, protect and restore the shine of your weapons.

By giving a perfectly natural satin sheen and increased resistance to wear, these wipes will help you preserve your weapon over time, both in use and in storage.

Made in Occitania, these 100% vegetable wipes from organic farming use active ingredients that respect the environment and therefore their user. Reusable approximately 300 times after a gentle wash at 30°C, these wipes will undoubtedly be essential in the cleaning kit of all hunters and all shooters!

Hunting with respect for the environment: the ARMENET range, mainly from organic farming and using products of natural rather than chemical origin, combines maximum efficiency with high standards of ecological manufacturing.

Because hunters are also concerned about environmental issues!
