Tracking rifle for driven big game hunting.

Short and extremely handy rifle for hunting wild boar! A shotgun ideally designed for shooting big game on the move. The synthetic stock also gives you great resistance to shocks and bad weather.

- Proven stacked barrels 51 cm steel ball
- Mono selective trigger
- Ergal rocker, extractors
- Fixed cyl/cyl chokes
- 372 mm black synthetic stock
- 21 mm rubber butt plate
- Tulip front pistol grip in black composite material
- Shock-absorbing butt plate
- Steel rocker with black finish

A modern and discreet hunting superimposed with its all-black finish.

The composite elements provide great resistance to humidity and saline environments. In addition to its excellent resistance to the elements, the composite elements unlike wood require little maintenance after a long day of hunting.

With COUNTRY guns you will benefit from an inexpensive shotgun, capable of competing with the biggest manufacturers.
