The 1911, designed by John Browning and adopted by the U.S. Army in 1911, has become a global standard. The TISAS ZIG M 1911 Inox continues this tradition by adding modern features that enhance comfort, safety, and versatility.

Two calibers available

The shooter can choose between the .45 ACP , the historic caliber of the 1911, and the 9x19 mm , more economical and accessible. A dual offer that meets both lovers of classic sensations and practitioners looking for an optimized shooting cost.

Ergonomics and safety

The extended rear safety pedal, combined with the textured pads , ensures a firm and comfortable grip. The front and rear grip ridges make it easier to operate the bolt, even during extended sessions. Available with two sets of textured pads to choose between two more or less pronounced grips. The gray deep grip pads have a thumbprint for the right hand.

Relaxation and precision

The openwork stainless steel trigger, set at a starting weight of 2.5 kg, guarantees a clean and constant start, designed for regularity at the shooting range.

Colt Series 70 Compatibility

With internal components compatible with Colt 70 series parts, the ZIG M 1911 is ideal for maintenance, customization, or performance optimization.
