Excellent model for classic handgun ammunition.

An exceptional value single stage reloading press with the Lee Breech Lock quick change system. Exclusive balancing lever that cannot lower to pinch your fingers. Designed for dies with standard 7/8"x14 thread.

Unlimited hand clearance that only a "C" frame can provide. Works equally well with the right hand as with the left hand. Even if you already have a press, an additional press is always useful for depriming, setting, or sizing bales. Accepts standard 7/8 x14 thread dies and standard universal press shell holders.

The base is sold separately.
