An ergonomic pump-action rifle, quick to reload and naturally suited to driven hunts.

The Winchester SXR2 Pump Field is a bolt-action rifle designed for driven hunts, available in .30-06 Springfield and .300 Win Mag . Its detachable drop box magazine offers a capacity of 4+1 or 3+1 rounds, respectively. The seven-lug locking system in the barrel provides a rigid closure, suitable for magnum cartridges and conducive to shooting accuracy. Its wooden stock features a straightened grip, modern checkering, and an Inflex II recoil pad that improves handling and reduces felt recoil. The rib, combined with the LPA fiber optic front sight, facilitates rapid target acquisition. The M14x1 threaded barrel completes this functional configuration, while the slide stop control simplifies handling and safety operation.
