The FN 509® Tactical is based on the pistol presented by FN to the U.S. Army as part of the Modular Pistol Program.

Semi-automatic pistol with launched striker (stryker) and Double Action operation.

- Forged and cold hammered steel barrel with 1/2x28 thread
- High viewfinder allowing aiming with sound moderator and red dot optic
- Polymer construction with replaceable steel frame/slide guide rails
- Improved grip texture allows for faster repeat shots in all conditions
- MIL-STD-1913 Picatinny Accessory Mount Rail

Comes with: 2 interchangeable grip backs, 2 17-round magazines, 4 MRD mounting plates, locking device & soft pistol case with FN logo.

- FN interface with bottom profile for optics (US patent no. 10/352 654)
- Front and rear grooved slide for easy handling
- Semi-automatic striker-fired pistol (stryker) with Double Action operation.

FN 509® Tactical - Advanced Performance, Exceptional Versatility. The FN 509® Tactical, a remarkable extension of the FN 509 family, is designed with significant improvements to meet the highest demands. Originally developed for testing the U.S. Army's Modular Pistol Program, this pistol combines ingenious design with advanced features.

Main Features:

1. Low Profile FN Optical Interface (US Patent No. 10/352,654):

- Designed for more than ten commercially available red dot sights (RDS).
- Perfect alignment with the sight for precise aiming with sound moderator.

- Adaptability to future versions of optics without direct milling of the slide.

2. Multipurpose Zipper Cap:

- Raised fins protect the alignment of the sight in case of a fall or impact.
- Textured ramp for secure support of the zipper against belt, trouser pocket or boot.
- Ideal for one-handed operation when no optics are used.

3. 114mm Stainless Steel Barrel:

- Cold hammered for exceptional durability.
- Chamfered mouth for increased accuracy.
- ½" x 28 thread accepting most 9mm sound moderators on the market.
- Protective ring for the thread with integrated O-ring to prevent loosening during use.

The FN 509® Tactical offers an unparalleled shooting experience, combining rugged construction with intelligent features to meet the needs of even the most demanding firearms enthusiasts. Choose excellence with this versatile pistol, ready to take on any challenge.

Included with:

- Two interchangeable handle backs
- Two 17-round magazines
- Four MRD mounting plates (see diagram for compatibility)
- User manual
- Locking device
- Soft pistol holster with FN logo
