The 2 DeadShot® bags form an optimal and stable shooting platform for AR-15 and AR-10 rifles.

The rear bag is reversible: one side for M4 carbine stocks, the other for A2-style stocks. The high-profile front bag is ideal for all ARs, even with a 30-round magazine.

- The rifle can easily be rotated for quick magazine changes.
- Works great with bolt-action tactical rifles.
- Extremely durable ballistic nylon resists scratches from sharp-edged Picatinny rails.

The DeadShot® Tactical Bag Set was designed to provide an optimal and stable shooting platform for all AR-15 and AR-10 rifle platforms.

The innovative dual-configuration rear bag can be oriented for M4 carbine-style stocks or reversed for an ideal fit for A2-style stocks. The high-profile front bag is the ideal height for ARs, allowing for 30-round magazines.

Features :

- Approximate weight 7.5lbs (3400g)
- Perfect shooting height with plenty of room for a 30-round magazine
- The rifle can easily be rotated for quick magazine changes.
- Works great with bolt-action tactical rifles.
- Extremely durable ballistic nylon resists scratches from sharp-edged Picatinny rails.

Both bags feature extremely heavy ballistic nylon on the contact surfaces, designed to withstand the abuse of handguards with sharp-edged spike rails. The bags are pre-filled and ready to use.
