The asymmetrical frame provides great stability while maximizing length adjustment options. By simply loosening the locking knob, the angle between the two halves of the frame can be adjusted to change the distance between the front and rear supports. The fact that the receiver is offset to the side of the weapon also provides ample space for extended magazines on semi-autos (AR-15), lever-action weapons, and roll-action blocks. Another great advantage of the receiver design is its reversible ability. Whether you are right-handed or left-handed, you will be comfortable shooting. The fully adjustable front and rear supports hold your weapon securely while protecting the stock and scabbard. It folds quickly for easy transport and storage. All these features combined into one rest make it a unique shooting base that fits all firearms.
