This proven caliber ensures reliable stopping power, even at close range. Compact, balanced, and quick to load, this express rifle is a strategic choice for driven hunts or stand hunting.

One-piece Ergal rocker: strength and lightness

Made from Ergal alloy , the receiver significantly reduces the overall weight without compromising strength. The result? A rifle weighing only 2.75 kg , ideal for long days in the field. High-quality machining ensures smooth action and increased durability.

60cm over-and-under cannons

The barrels feature optimized convergence for maximum accuracy. Their 60 cm length allows for complete combustion of the powder, ensuring power and consistency. The weapon maintains a compact size with an overall length of only 105 cm .

Fiber optic sight and hunting rail

The red fiber optic front sight and the rib ensure rapid target acquisition , even in low light. This open sight system is designed for reflex shots at moving game. The rib is also pre-equipped for mounting optics .

Oiled FX Wood stock

The FX Wood stock impresses with its dark walnut appearance and meticulous oiled finish. It offers a comfortable grip , good recoil absorption, and a touch of traditional elegance. The precise checkering on the pistol grip and forend ensures an effective grip in all conditions.
