Designed for optimal grip and increased strength, the WBP Standard Polymer Low Handguard improves handling and control of your AK platform.

- Compatible with AK, AKM and Minijack Wood

Design and materials

The WBP Standard low handguard is made of reinforced polymer, ensuring lightness and high resistance to impacts and high temperatures. This design allows intensive use without compromising the strength of the handguard.

Ergonomics and performance

Its textured surface and deep grooves provide excellent grip, even in wet conditions or with gloves. Its contoured shape improves grip and allows better control of the weapon during sustained or dynamic shots.

Compatibility and installation

Fully compatible with traditional AK platforms, the WBP Standard Lower Handguard installs quickly without modifications. It ensures a precise fit and stable fixation for reliable use in all circumstances.
