Excellent Category C replica of the famous Italian tactical semi-automatic rifle for a fraction of the price.

The AKSA S4 exudes strength, reliability and quality.

Its rugged design allows it to fire ammunition up to 50 grams without worry and will cycle perfectly with low-load ammunition.

Its reliability and robustness do not prevent AKSA from also having taken care of the finishes, notably with its CERAKOTE coating.

This Extreme version evolves the S4 platform by giving it an even more aggressive and racy design, all with tactical-looking accessories, such as the new handguard...
