Reliable protection for harsh environments

N-Track Green gaiters are designed to withstand the harshest environments. Whether hunting in dense undergrowth, on a challenging hike, or stalking in wet conditions, they provide a solid barrier against brambles, branches, and water spray.

Kevlar reinforcements and durable fabric

The outer fabric is reinforced with Kevlar inserts in high-wear areas. This technical material provides increased abrasion resistance while maintaining excellent freedom of movement. Ideal for unrestricted progress.

Waterproof and breathable membrane

The integrated membrane effectively protects against moisture and wind. Even in unpredictable weather, your legs stay dry, reducing the risk of chills and unpleasant chafing.

Secure fit and convenient adjustment

The shoe is held securely in place by a metal cable under the shoe combined with an adjustable strap. This reliable system prevents slippage. The full-length zippered opening, protected by a Velcro flap, makes it easy to put on even in difficult conditions.

FAQ
