The Flint MK1 Chest Rig is specifically designed to integrate seamlessly with Corso Tactical's Drake MK2 and MK3 tactical vests, thanks to its Velcro fastening system and robust fasteners, ensuring a strong and stable attachment. The shoulder straps are equipped with MOLLE loops, allowing the addition of additional accessories such as radio pouches or hydration systems.

Featuring a laser-cut MOLLE system throughout the vest, it allows for complete customization by adding various pouches and accessories according to the user's specific needs. Adjustable straps ensure a perfect fit for different body shapes, ensuring comfort and stability during movement.

The Flint MK1 is equipped with two administrative pouches with female Velcro , ideal for storing personal items or additional accessories. In addition, it includes inserts for up to six 5.56 mm type magazines (compatible with M4, AUG, AK74), providing quick and secure access to ammunition. For airsoft players, it will be perfect for holding magazines for AR15 / M4 / M16 AEG replicas.

Available in Multicam , Ranger Green , Coyote and Black , the Flint MK1 adapts to various configurations and tactical preferences, providing seamless integration with the rest of the equipment.
