The two-tone Tisas PX-9 Duty Gen 3 embodies a modern generation of striker-fired pistols. With its lightweight and robust polymer frame, optic-ready compatibility, and multiple customization options, it is aimed at shooters seeking versatility and comfort.

Ergonomics and comfort

The PX-9 comes with six sets of backrests and side plates, allowing the grip to be perfectly tailored to the shooter's body shape. The textured grip and straight trigger guard promote a firm and comfortable hold.

Modern performance

The striker fired mechanism offers a direct and responsive trigger, with an optimized trigger pull of 1650g. Its forged steel slide features front and rear grip grooves for smooth handling.

Optic Ready compatibility

The model is optic-ready for RMR-type red dots. The high, Glock-compatible fiber optic sights allow for co-witness aiming with a mounted red dot.

Enhanced security

The PX-9 incorporates a cocked firing pin indicator on the rear of the slide, as well as a bright red extractor serving as a loaded chamber indicator. The trigger safety and firing pin block add additional protection.

Accessories included

Delivered in a case, the PX-9 Duty Gen 3 includes two 18-round magazines (P226 compatible), a holster inside, and a cleaning kit. Its removable magwell facilitates quick reloads.

- Picatinny rail: machined under the frame
- ejection window: large and reinforced
- magwell: removable, facilitates the insertion of the magazine
- sights: front fiber optic / Glock-type notched rear sight
- accessories supplied: holster, cleaning kit, 2 18-round magazines
