The Charles Daly Coach Gun 18.5" 12/76 gauge is a modern reinterpretation of 19th-century coach guns, designed for authenticity, reliability, and maneuverability. Compact and rugged, it is ideal for hunting, recreational shooting, and sport shooting.

A compact and handy rifle

With its 47 cm juxtaposed barrels, this coach gun stands out for its exceptional maneuverability , ideal for driven hunts, woodcock hunting or shooting at moving targets. Its compactness allows for rapid shouldering and optimal control.

Functional external dogs

Rare on modern firearms, external hammers not only add vintage style but also provide additional control over the cocking process. Each hammer can be cocked or uncocked individually, providing increased safety and an authentic shooting experience.

Versatility thanks to interchangeable chokes

Supplied with 5 interchangeable MC-1 chokes (Full, 3/4, 1/2, 1/4, smooth), the Charles Daly Coach Gun easily adapts to different hunting and shooting practices. Its extractors facilitate the ejection of shells and its brass barley grain ensures instinctive aiming.

A classic and robust design

The checkered walnut stock provides a firm and elegant grip, while the matte black steel barrels ensure strength and durability. Its dual trigger makes it easy to choose which barrel to use.

The Charles Daly Coach Gun 18.5" is the ideal shotgun for traditional gun enthusiasts, western shooting enthusiasts and hunters looking for a reliable, versatile and stylish gun.
