Protect and maintain your metal equipment with professional efficiency!

Armistol Paroxyd Oil is a multi-service maintenance product par excellence, designed to meet the needs of professionals and enthusiasts of hunting, sport shooting, fishing, DIY and industry.

Its advanced formula provides a penetrating, hydrophobic, lubricating and anti-wear action, guaranteeing optimal protection against corrosion, oxidation, sulfation and all forms of rust, even in acidic environments. Ideal for firearms, antique weapons, collector's weapons, as well as for small metal mechanisms, this oil ensures complete and long-lasting maintenance.

Armistol Paroxyd Oil stands out for its versatility and effectiveness. It repels water, dissolves and neutralizes residues, while forming an invisible protective film that prevents the formation of rust and oxidation. Its penetrating power facilitates the operation of mechanisms by freeing rusted or seized parts. Easy to use, simply shake the aerosol well before use, hold the container upright, and spray with brief pressures on the surfaces to be treated. This product is an essential ally for the regular maintenance of your metal equipment.
