The internal mechanism integrates mobile cartridge holders synchronized with the movement of the bolt: the cartridge remains well guided then releases perfectly at the moment of elevation — guaranteeing a smooth and rapid shot.

The case-hardened receiver contrasts elegantly with the bronzed finishes of the barrel and tubular magazine, while the English walnut stock, equipped with a curved calciolo, facilitates rapid changes of direction, a valuable asset in dynamic western disciplines.

This rifle is distinguished by:

- Its versatility: calibrated for the very widespread .45 LC.
- Its classic and timeless design, set in a modern frame.
- A perfect balance, optimized lightness and ergonomics (3.1 kg).
