Beeman BP50 pistol caliber .50 – 15 joules

The Beeman BP50 is a .50 caliber CO2 pistol designed for non-lethal personal defense and target practice. Its energy of up to 15 joules, combined with rubber projectiles, provides a deterrent impact without puncture. Its realistic design and quality of manufacture make it a popular model among demanding users.

Semi-automatic mechanism and instant percussion

Thanks to its removable 8-shot magazine integrated into the stock and its semi-automatic operation, the BP50 guarantees excellent responsiveness. The rapid piercing system of the CO? cartridge allows immediate activation when needed, reinforcing the defensive aspect of the model.

Accessories included for immediate use

This pack includes 5 BO Manufacture 12g CO2 sparklets, ideal for feeding multiple magazines with a single cartridge, as well as a tube of 10.50 rubber balls with high shock effect, compatible with all T4E type weapons.

Easy transport and maintenance

Everything comes in a hard ABS case with interior foam (35 x 25 x 7 cm) for secure transport. A 120 ml 3-in-1 oil can is also included, essential for regular maintenance of the weapon: anti-corrosion, lubrication, anti-rust protection and projectile lubrication.

■ Energy: Up to 15 joules

■ Caliber: .50 - 1.05g solid rubber balls

■ CO2 autonomy: Several chargers per sparklet

■ Handle: Fast percussion with control window
