Stylish all-metal CO2 replica inspired by the Beretta M84.

An iconic look for recreational shooting

Inspired by the famous Beretta M84, this replica by BORNER impresses with its faithful silhouette and all-metal design. Its realistic appearance makes it an excellent option for amateur shooters looking for a balanced model that is both elegant and high-performance.

Comfort of handling

The Borner M84 features soft rubber grips that ensure a secure and comfortable grip, even during long shooting sessions. Its compact size (17 cm) and well-distributed weight (730 g) make it easy to handle.

CO2 propulsion and 19-shot magazine

The pistol operates using a 12g CO2 cartridge inserted into the stock. It fires 4.5mm steel BBs at a maximum velocity of 393 fps , providing good power for target shooting or plinking .

Semi-automatic operation

Each pull of the trigger fires a pellet without manual reloading. This semi-automatic operation makes use intuitive and dynamic. The pistol is equipped with fixed sights for rapid shots at short range.
