This Christmas bundle featuring the SR25 Double Bell has been designed to offer a complete, consistent, and truly effective gaming experience. It includes everything you need to improve comfort, stability, and shooting consistency.

The whole thing forms a versatile configuration, perfectly suited to gamers looking for a reliable and already optimized long-range platform.

An SR25 replica designed for stability

The SR25 Double Bell AEG features a reassuringly solid, all-metal construction, offering a feeling of robustness from the moment you pick it up. The SR25-style gearbox, equipped with a quick-change spring system, facilitates internal adjustments without requiring extensive disassembly. The 500mm inner barrel, combined with a rotating hop-up chamber, delivers a flat and consistent trajectory, ideal for long-range engagements.

A clear and precise RTI scope

The RTI 4x32 Tactical Series scope delivers a sharp image thanks to its multi-coated lenses. Its mildot reticle helps judge distances and quickly adjust your aim. Supplied with compatible rings, it easily mounts to the SR25's top rail.

A reliable bipod for stable support

The telescopic metal bipod attaches directly to a Picatinny rail. Its stability and rapid deployment allow for secure firing positions, particularly for support or extended observation.

Consumables and food included

Lancer Tactical 0.25g BBs provide consistent feed, ideal for a precision barrel. The 11.1V stick-style LiPo battery installs easily, while the BO3 charger ensures safe charging with automatic cell balancing.
