A rifle designed for recreational shooting and precision

The Equality Maker from BO Manufacture is a bolt-action rifle in .22 LR caliber designed for ease of use and robustness. Its ergonomic synthetic "thumbhole" stock offers a comfortable grip, perfect for long shooting sessions.

Ready for accessories

The 1/2x20 UNF threaded barrel allows for the addition of a sound moderator, while the integrated 11mm rail easily accommodates a scope or red dot sight. This allows you to adapt the rifle to your needs in moments.

Extended battery life thanks to the additional charger

This pack includes an additional 10-round magazine , identical to the one supplied with the rifle. Made of metal, it accepts all standard .22 LR ammunition, giving you greater autonomy at the shooting range.
