Symbol of the Texas Rangers

The Texas Rangers star is one of the most recognizable emblems in the history of the Old West . Created in the 19th century, this elite Texan corps played a major role in maintaining order on the frontiers and in the vast territories of the American West.

Authentic finish

This reproduction features a patinated metal finish with a central star and embossed lettering. The deliberately aged appearance enhances its visual authenticity, making it suitable for display in a collection or as part of a Western-inspired costume.

Reenactment accessory

Thanks to its pin fastening system on the back, the star can be attached to clothing, a jacket, or a decorative item. It is intended exclusively for decorative or display purposes.

Western Spirit

Ideal for fans of American history, western reenactments or iconic objects of the Far West, this star evokes the era of wide open spaces and legendary figures of Texas.
