A technical vest designed for efficiency in the field

When hunting, keeping essentials close at hand makes all the difference. This bib vest combines ergonomics , storage capacity , and enhanced visibility . Thanks to its balanced design and numerous adjustments, it remains comfortable even during long outings in varied terrain.

A complete adjustment system for a precise fit

The vest incorporates several adjustment points: adjustable shoulder straps , a chest strap , a waist strap , and side straps . This design allows the vest to be perfectly adapted to the user's body shape and the clothing worn underneath, whether it be a light outfit or a thicker jacket.

Practical organization with accessible pockets

The three front pockets offer quick access to essential accessories: ammunition, small equipment, or personal items. Their design makes them easy to open and use, even with gloves on-a welcome feature on cool days.

Integrated and washable game bag

At the rear, a spacious game bag allows for the convenient transport of small game. It is designed to be washable , simplifying maintenance after your outing. This feature makes it particularly suitable for active hunters.

Enhanced visibility for safety

The high-visibility orange color combined with brown ensures a clear visual presence in the natural environment. This contrast is particularly appreciated during group activities, contributing to better identification of hunters in the field.

Versatility for different environments

Part of the Multifield range, this vest is designed to accompany hunters in a variety of environments: open plains, wooded areas, hilly terrain, or wetlands. Its robust construction in durable polyester allows it to withstand the rigors of regular use.
