BoreSnake-type cord - Complete cleaning in one easy step!

BoreSnake type cord - Complete cleaning in just one step:

1) The brass weight effortlessly drives the cord which you just have to pull firmly.

2) The first section of cord carries away the coarsest particles.

3) The metal brush integrated into the string clears hard deposits.

4) The main cord section, with 160 times more surface area than a cloth, provides unparalleled cleaning. After a few uses, the cleaning cord can be easily cleaned by hand or in the washing machine in a washing bag.

Allows you to clean gun barrels of different calibers.
