Enhanced control right from the start

On a 1911 A1 , the grip plays a key role. These TISAS wood grips offer effective checkering that immediately improves grip. In real-world conditions, you feel a better control of the weapon, especially during rapid-fire sequences.

Thumbprint: a real plus on the field

The integrated indentation on the left side naturally guides the thumb of a right-handed shooter. The result: a more consistent position, less fatigue, and a noticeable gain in stability for precision shooting .

A look inspired by historical models

The dark brown wood combined with the engraved US logo is reminiscent of the iconic military versions of the 1911. It's a choice that appeals to both collectors and regular users at the shooting range.

Simple and standardized installation

Compatible with 1911 A1 platforms, these plates can be easily mounted on most models on the market thanks to their standard drilling.

- Color: dark brown
- Type: Right and left brake pads
- Texture: fine grid
- Use: sport shooting, collection

FAQ

Are these brake pads compatible with all 1911 models?

They are designed for standard 1911 A1 models with conventional bores. It is advisable to check compatibility with your firearm.

Is the thumbprint suitable for left-handed people?

No, it is positioned on the left side for optimal use by right-handed shooters.

How do I maintain these wooden plaques?

Cleaning with a soft cloth is sufficient. Wood oil can be applied occasionally to preserve their appearance.
