- Initial velocity: 400 m/s
- Base: 12 mm
- Optimal distance: 8 to 20 m
- Packaging: Box of 25

Specifically designed for woodcock

The Rottweil Game Edition Woodcock was developed with the specific constraints of woodland hunting in mind: reduced visibility, rapid shots, and short distances. It delivers a wide and even pattern, ideal for intercepting a moving bird.

Short-distance performance

Optimized for shots between 8 and 20 meters, this cartridge offers immediate effectiveness. Its high velocity of 400 m/s allows for a rapid reaction upon firing - a key advantage when every fraction of a second counts.

Balanced charge for controlled dispersion

With a 34g load and size 9 shot, it guarantees a good compromise between shot pattern density and stopping power. In practice, this translates into effective coverage without excessive penetration, perfectly suited to small game.

Rottweil's signature on-the-ground reliability

The quality of its construction ensures consistent combustion and reliable shooting. This is exactly the cartridge you would choose for confident use in dense terrain, season after season.

- Use: Woodcock and small game hunting
- Weapon type: 12 gauge shotgun

- Environment: Undergrowth, enclosed spaces
- Application: Instinctive short-range shooting

FAQ

Is this cartridge suitable for hunting in undergrowth?

Yes, it is specifically designed for rapid firing in enclosed spaces with a wide and effective pattern.

Why use size 9 shot for woodcock?

The No. 9 shot allows for a dense and rapid dispersion, ideal for hitting small game at short range.

What is the optimal operating distance?

This cartridge is optimized for shots between 8 and 20 meters.
