A rifle designed for recreational and sport shooting

Designed around the Chiappa platform and enhanced with Adamantium technologies developed by SAPL, this rifle offers a comfortable grip and excellent versatility. Its light weight allows for long shooting sessions with less fatigue, while its ergonomics facilitate rapid target acquisition.

Carbon fiber barrel and Adamantium sound moderator

The barrel is fitted with a carbon fiber sleeve, which contributes to reducing the overall weight. At its end, the Adamantium carbon fiber sound moderator completes the assembly with a modern, heat-resistant design suitable for regular use at the shooting range.

M-LOK® interface and integral Picatinny rail

The handguard incorporates M-LOK® slots, allowing for the addition of compatible accessories as needed. The long top Picatinny rail facilitates the mounting of a scope, red dot sight, or other optical equipment.

Ergonomics and ease of use

The oiled beechwood stock provides a traditional look while maintaining excellent robustness. Its overall balance and handling are immediately apparent, making it particularly well-suited for recreational or training shooting sessions.
