Natural camouflage in a wooded environment

The JACK PYKE LLCS 3D Baseball Cap EVO was designed for users seeking an effective camouflage solution without compromising comfort. The 3D foils with the English Oak Evolution pattern create depth and help break up the lines of the face and head, which are often highly visible in natural environments.

A lightweight design for long rides

During a day spent in a hide, observing, or photographing wildlife, comfort is essential. Thanks to its lightweight polyester construction, this cap is comfortable to wear for several hours. Its quiet operation is also a significant advantage when every movement needs to be discreet.

Breathable mesh for added comfort

The mesh top panel promotes airflow and improves comfort on warmer days. This design helps limit heat buildup while maintaining the camouflage qualities inherent to the LLCS 3D range.

A quick and easy adjustment

The hook-and-loop fastener at the back allows the cap to be easily adjusted to most head sizes. This system provides a secure fit while remaining easy to adjust in the field.
