Transform your 11mm rail into a Weaver/Picatinny interface for increased compatibility with your accessories.

These adapters are distinguished by their high-quality, compact, two-block design. Each piece measures 21 mm in length, ensuring stable installation and maximum compatibility. Made of anodized aluminum, these adapters combine lightness and robustness, guaranteeing optimal durability even under the most demanding conditions.

To adapt and assemble:

- an 11mm rail optic on a 21mm rail weapon
- a 21mm rail optic on an 11mm rail weapon.

Designed for demanding users, this adapter is aimed at hunters, sport shooters and gunsmiths looking for a practical and reliable solution to expand the possibilities of their weapon. Thanks to its height of 16 mm, it avoids interference between the optics and the original rail, ensuring perfect alignment and ergonomic use. Its anodized aluminum construction ensures excellent wear resistance, even under intensive use conditions.

Whether mounting a rifle scope, red dot sight, or tactical accessories, the Sportsmatch RB5 is a versatile and durable option. Its two-piece configuration provides additional flexibility to adapt to different needs, making this product as practical as it is effective.

Allows you to mount older generations of scopes on recent weapons with 21 mm rails (Weaver type Picatinny type)

Or mount a high-performance optic on a 11 mm prismatic rail rifle

This assembly is produced in England by Sport Match under the references RB6 and RB5
