Premium high-precision BBs designed to fully exploit precision barrels.

BLS Precision BBs 0.43g White 1000 pcs are made from high-quality composites and feature a polished finish for excellent consistency. Their precisely controlled diameter ensures smooth feeding and optimal performance in airsoft replicas equipped with precision barrels.

- Weight: 0.43 g
- Packaging: bag of 1000 marbles
- Color: white
- Material: High-quality plastic
- Type: precision marbles
- Diameter: 5.95 mm \pm 0.01 mm
- Manufacturer reference: 1BA-H43
- Compatibility: AEG, GBB and Gas

A manufacturing process dedicated to precision

BLS Precision Balls 0.43g White 1000 pcs have been developed for users seeking maximum consistency. Each ball benefits from careful manufacturing and meticulous polishing, resulting in a perfectly smooth surface. This high-quality finish helps reduce trajectory variations and promotes more consistent groupings.

Diameter controlled with great precision

With a diameter of 5.95 mm and an extremely low tolerance of \pm 0.01 mm, these BBs meet the requirements of the highest-performance airsoft guns. This dimensional consistency ensures smooth passage through magazines, hop-up chambers, and precision barrels, while minimizing variations in performance between shots.

Optimized for precision cannons

This ammunition is particularly recommended for replicas equipped with a precision barrel. The 0.43g weight provides excellent flight stability and improved resistance to external disturbances. Its consistent performance at medium and long ranges is especially appreciated.

High-quality materials

Made from select plastic composites, these BBs offer a level of finish suitable for demanding configurations. The quality control applied to each batch helps preserve the performance of hop-up assemblies and precision inner barrels.

Additional features

- Manufacturer code: 1BA-H43
- Finish: High-quality polished surface
- Use: precision airsoft
- Type: non-biodegradable
- Packaging: 1000 marbles

FAQ

Are these beads biodegradable?

No, this model is made of high-quality plastic material and is not biodegradable.

Why use 0.43g marbles?

The 0.43g weight offers excellent trajectory stability and is particularly suitable for airsoft replicas configured for precision.

Are these BBs suitable for precision guns?

Yes, their 5.95 mm diameter with a tolerance of ± 0.01 mm makes them particularly suitable for precision barrels and configurations seeking maximum consistency.
