The special register of Category A and B weapons in paper form remains useful despite the arrival of the SIA. Whether it is a failure of the SIA or your network that prevents you from accessing it, do not deprive yourself of sales thanks to this paper register which allows you to keep track of transactions while you regain access to the SIA. You can also simply keep a computer record and, in addition, a paper trail. All flows of Category B and C weapons are now obligatorily recorded in the Digital Police Book of a gunsmith.
