Replica of the USMC KA-BAR knife: Emblematic since 1942.

American army type combat knife.

- Massive 17 cm partially serrated blade.
- Handle made of compressed leather rounds ending with a steel pommel.

KA-BAR USMC knives enjoy an exceptionally rich history and iconic status, far surpassing most other knives. During World War II, they were already the preferred choice of many American soldiers. Although officially referred to as the USMC Mark 2 Combat Knife, they quickly acquired the nickname "the KA-BAR" adopted by all. Its distinctive clippoint blade and leather handle make it recognizable from afar.
