Subsonic ammunition for discreet hunting

Designed to meet the expectations of hunters looking for silence and ballistic efficiency, this cartridge uses the Sellier & Bellot Soft Point bullet, renowned for its reliability and consistency.

Soft Point Sellier & Bellot Technology

- Semi-armored bullet: combination of a metal jacket and a lead core stripped at the tip.
- Controlled deformation: upon impact, the ball mushrooms to maximize energy transfer.
- Versatility: suitable for hunting large ungulate game.
- Precision: manufacturing consistency for constant groupings.

Ballistic performance

This subsonic ammunition significantly reduces firing noise, especially when used with a suppressor. It nevertheless provides sufficient energy to ensure effective shots on large game.
