Plombs expander - gamo

Pointed Head / Smooth Body / Maximum Performance / Maximum Expansion.

- By 250.
- Caliber: 4.5

A pellet specifically developed for hunting or regulating pests in countries that self-regulate the use of compressed air for these uses. The Gamo Expander lead is both pointed and hollow for good penetration while having maximum expansion.

In England lead Expander is widely used to regulate rat populations in farms.

Gamo Expander pellets are affordable, and offer very good value for money.
