Chiappa replica of the infantry version of the Spencer, 30" long barrel, 3 bands.

Total interchangeability of parts with originals.

The name "3 bands" corresponds to the system of fixation of the barrel to the was by 3 bands of steel

- Number of hits: 7 + 1

Chiappa replica of the infantry version of the spencer, Canon long 30 ", 3 bands.

Chiappa Firearms is the only industry-wide manufacturer in the world that has faithfully reproduced the Spencer model in every detail. So much so that all the components are milled in solid steel blocks to ensure the reliability of operation, because the total interchangeability of parts with the originals is achievable.

Historically: With its construction and so precise tolerances the 7 metal cartridges were not damaged by moisture. This new lever model could fire faster and be reloaded faster than a 'Colt' revolver.
